MS. AWILDA RIVERA

On behalf of the Members of the Newark Municipal Council, along with her family members, friends and colleagues, we would like to recognize Ms. Awilda Rivera for her outstanding work in Broadcasting. Ms. Rivera is a native of New York City. She began her career at WBGO in 1993 and for the next six years Ms. Rivera subbed in various day parts and hosts her own weekend shows such as, Sunday Morning Harmony, Latin Jazz Cruise and Weekend Jazz After Hours. While hosting these events, Ms. Rivera was a full-time employee at Greenwich House Settlement in New York City, in the agency's drug rehab component. After twenty years of service Ms. Rivera retired in 1998, from Greenwich House and she became a full-time employee in the Summer of 1999, as the evening host, Monday to Friday at WBGO. Not only does she host her nightly shows, but she continues to host the weekly program, Latin Jazz Cruise. Among Ms. Rivera's other credits, she has done voiceover work independently and for WBGO and from 2012-2014, she hosted inflight jazz and smooth jazz programs for China and Oman Airlines. Ms. Rivera has received honors and awards from "Chico O'Farrill" Lifetime Achievement Award for Outstanding Contribution to Afro Cuban and Latin Jazz and New York People's Hall of Fame Award for Fostering Latin Jazz on the Radio in 2012. The Governing Body applauds this phenomenal woman, Ms. Awilda Rivera and her many contributions that she has given to the music industry, the world of jazz and to WGBO. Congratulations!

MR. DAVID "DAVIDO" ADELEKE
AFRICAN RECORDING ARTIST AND PHILANTHROPIST
ON HIS VISIT THROUGH THE OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS
AND DIASPORA AFFAIRS ON THURSDAY, JULY 20, 2017

We, the Members of the Newark Municipal Council, along with the Office of International Affairs, family members, friends and residents of African descent would like to welcome Mr. David "Davido" Adeleke to our wonderful City of Newark, New Jersey. Mr. Adeleke, better known by his stage name "Davido" was born on November 21, 1992, in Atlanta, Georgia, but was raised in Lagos, Nigeria. He has become one of the hottest artists out of Nigeria, with a 2011 single "Dami Duro", which was well received throughout Nigeria, Africa and the world. "Davido" is currently signed with Sony Music and he also has his own label, Davido Music Worldwide (DMW), with two artists Dremo and Mayorkum signed to his label. He has received numerous awards and nominations such as; receiving a BET Award, a Kora Award, a Channel O Music Video Award, a Ghana Music Award and a Nigeria Music Video Award just to name a few. "Davido" has been very generous to his community with charitable contributions. In 2017, he built a house for a student who went viral singing his songs in Nigeria, in 2014, he donated food and relief items to orphanages in Ivory Coast during the Ebola outbreak and in 2013, he donated N1million Naira to a cancer patient. Because of his fame and celebrity status, "Davido" speaks at schools to students about the importance of education and staying in school. The Governing Body applauds the work of Mr. David "Davido" Adeleke and his contributions to the world of entertainment, but also to his community in Nigeria and the United States of America. Further, wishing you continued success in your future endeavors. Congratulations!
