holding accountable NPD officers; and

WHEREAS, the United States alleges that the NPD has also failed to provide officers with the tools necessary to support constitutional policing, such as adequate training, clear and easily accessible policies, and meaningful supervisory direction; and

WHEREAS, the United States, Department of Justice presented the City with a Consent Decree to begin negotiations to settle this Complaint; and

WHEREAS, the United States, Department of Justice, the United States Attorney's Office, and the Police Department, now known as the Police Division of the Department of Public Safety engaged in extensive discussions and negotiations to settle this Complaint which is being memorialized in the attached Consent Decree; and
