WHEREAS, Ordinance 6PDF-e, adopted on May 20, 2015, authorizes the designation of an intersection, etc. for honorary and ceremonial purposes; and

WHEREAS, Joanne Williams, affectionately known as “Red”, was born November 16, 1966 in the City of Newark. A proud product of the Newark school system she graduated from Peshine Avenue School before attending and graduating from Weequahic High School. Her loyalty, pride and passion for her alma mater deservedly earned her the name “Mother of Weequahic High School”, as she was instrumental in raising funding for new uniforms and providing guidance and support for many of the school’s various clubs and teams; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Williams’ pride and passion extended well beyond Weequahic High School. Her devotion and pride for all things Newark is well documented through her employment as a no-nonsense Meter Aid and Code Enforcement Officer under the administrations of Mayors Sharpe James and Ras J. Baraka. She had no problem enforcing the rules, regulations and codes designed to make the City function better and improve its image, and in many corners was called the “Mayor”; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Williams’ legacy as a true Newark personality will be forever remembered and revered as a role model for those who veered off track, a coach and savior to those in need of guidance, a loyal soldier with unwavering integrity and unquestionable love and commitment to her family, friends and the City of Newark.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NEWARK, NEW JERSEY, THAT:

1. The Municipal Council hereby authorizes the honorary and ceremonial renaming of the intersection of Bergen Street and Mapes Avenue as “Joanne Williams Way”.
2. The official name of the said streets shall remain Bergen Street and Mapes Avenue in their entirety.

STATEMENT

This resolution authorizes the renaming of the intersection of Bergen Street and Mapes Avenue “Joanne Williams Way,” for honorary and ceremonial purposes.
